Editorial

This is my husband's uncle, Thomas Jolley in the 1930s, a keen gardener and barrel cooper at Guinness Brewery in Dublin.

Have you any old photos that need help? Tattered or faded and worn? Jo Carter from Carterworks, our speaker at the next evening meeting, invites you to bring them for her to assess, date and advise on restoration. It's a great opportunity to have them looked at by an expert.

Lots going on this month. Please note that details of the current month's Pop up 'How to' session have been moved to page 6. This groups it with the other research help available.

The two tours to the National Library and Salvation Army Archives are coming up. Details are on page 3, so get in touch with Kathy if you are interested.

Don't forget to gather as much information as you can about your Brickwall and send it to the team to get help.

Look under 'Branch News' on page 2 for details.

Thanks to Mary Skipworth for the useful tips in her article about searching for migration records. It's good to get some help in negotiating that minefield.

Our sincere thanks must go to John Glover for his hours of work, coordinating the Schools Admission Project. It will be a valuable resource for researches of the future. See his final report on page 4.

The library has extended its home access to Ancestry for library users. so there's no excuse for not continuing your research in the winter weather. See page 2.

Good searching.

Branch news

August alert! Brickwalls.

Now is your chance to tap into the pooled wisdom of other members to try and break down your latest brick walls.

Please send the details of your Brickwall to us as soon as possible to give us time to try and tumble some of them. Include as many details as you know and email to kapitigen@gmail.com with the subject line BRICKWALLS

ALSO, to help spread the research load, we need volunteers who are willing to help work on these puzzles before the August meeting - please contact us at the email above if you are willing to help.

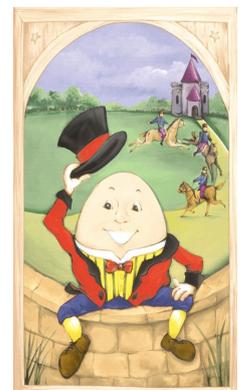

The intention is to summarise the process of solving (or not) 3 or 4 of them for presentation at the August meeting.

Welcome to new members:

Barry Iacoppi, David and Jenny Stagg, Jan Hayes, Sally Jackson and Lex Breen.

We look forward to meeting you and hearing of your interests.

See page 6 for information on our facilities at the APFHC and help with research.

Good News!

The library has extended Ancestry at Home to the end of the calendar year for library users. Go into the library catalogue and log into your account. Click the Home button in the left/top corner. The link to Ancestry is on the right hand side of screen.

Tours

There are two tours coming up.

National Library tour on Tuesday 29 June at 10.30am. These tours are always interesting and even if you've been before it's worth another visit as more and more resources are becoming available. The tour is about one hour long and you are welcome to stay on and do your own research. There is always a staff member available to help you.

Email kathycallaghan@gmail.com or ph 0210452925 by Sunday 27th June to register.

Salvation Army Archives tour Tuesday 13 July at 10.30am. This is an opportunity to hear about the meticulous records the Salvation Army keep on their officers and to view the most amazing collection of Salvation Army artefacts. You do not have to have any connection to the Salvation Army to enjoy this tour. If you do have connections, there are people who will find information for you. If you give me details of people of interest ahead of time they may even be able to have something waiting for you when we are visiting.

The Salvation Army Archives is in Trentham so we will car pool for this. Numbers are limited for this tour and there are 6 spaces still available, so email kathycallaghan@gmail.com or ph 0210452925 by Fri 9th July to register.

AGM and Wendy's Story

The Kapiti Branch AGM was held at the beginning of the May evening meeting.

The Convenor's report, Minutes of the last AGM and the reviewed Financial reports are all on our website under Communications, and were briefly presented to the meeting.

Those of the existing committee standing again were re-elected unopposed, as follows:

Convenor: Ian Barbour

Secretary: Colin Cameron

Treasurer: John Miller

Committee: Ian Brooking, Bev Chappell, Lorna Henderson and Denice McCarten.

The Committee is sorry to lose Sonia Coom, who has moved north to new pastures, and Gerard Denton. Their valuable contributions will be sorely missed.

The remainder of the Evening meeting was a top notch presentation from Kathy Callaghan about Wendy's story and how Kathy found her missing cousins. The highlight of the evening was being introduced to Wendy's daughter, who was found to be actually living in NZ. She told us about her and her sisters' reaction to being contacted by Kathy.

There were quite a few moist eyes in evidence of a moving evening's account. Thank you, Kathy.

Kathy also presented another well received (cut down) version for the Day meeting on Wednesday afternoon and, in addition, facilitated a discussion on resources used for finding living people.

Back to Basics update

The Back to Basics course got off to a great start with seventeen keen genealogists attending of which three are new members.

I have a fantastic team of Ian Brooking, Bernard, Lorna and Denice helping.

We had the first workshop on 8th June covering an introduction to Genealogy and the second on June 15th which covered Searching. Not only did we all learn many things we had a great fun time in doing so!

Final Report for Schools Admission Project

The Schools Admissions Project, which has been running since the beginning of 2015, has now drawn to a close. All the data has been sent to the NZSG.

I would like to thank the following who have given so many hours of their time to enter and check these records – 27748 records altogether. That's a very large amount of work!

The volunteers were: Frances Braddick, Kathy Callaghan, Alison Chappell, Beverly Chappell, Sandy Collings, Gerard Denton, Rodney Foster, Maria Frazer, Derek Griffis, Brenda Harden, Lynda Heron, Hanley Hoffmann (dec), Elizabeth Lynch, Judith McCallum, Bill McKeich, Dianna Marsden, Margaret Murton, Meryl Opie, Brian Ross, Esther Rudd, Gay Ruddleston, Stephen Sherring and Deborah Shuker. Many of these were also involved when I previously ran a similar project about 15 years ago.

Thanks must also go to the Branch Committee, which has been very supportive throughout the project.

Searching for an Emigration Record

Searching for an Emigration Record for William McDowall

A family obituary indicated the Bengal Merchant 1839-40 to Wellington as the ship.

The Petone Early Settlers Museum is a likely source of information:

<http://www.huttcity.govt.nz/Leisure--Culture/Museums-and-galleries/Our-museums/petone-settlers-data/>. Searching for McDowall, McDouall, and McDowell, date 1840, yielded nothing, but entering MacDowall date 1840 yielded William age 0, no name age 0, no name age 1, no name age 3. This was promising, but was from an unnamed secondary source. I wanted a primary source.

Then I entered “ship = Bengal Merchant” to display all the passengers and worked through the list. They were found, listed as Mc Dowall (two words), source NZ Company Records. They were cabin passengers, William, his wife (no ages), and boy aged 1, girl aged 3.

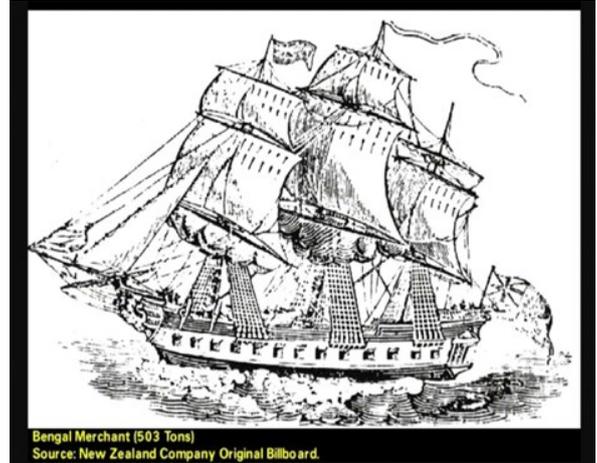

I still wanted to see an image of the source.

NZ Company Records are on Family Search

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/collection/1609792>

but I was unable to find this family under any of the above spellings. So I went back to the Petone database and chose another Bengal Merchant passenger. Putting in his name at Family Search and then clicking the little camera gave access to the Bengal Merchant ledger. I used the image counter tool to read through every page of the ledger looking for McDowalls.

Coming to the end of the list with no result, I read the heading properly. It was a list of emigrants provided with Free Passage, but the Petone database said they were cabin passengers. The next few pages of the ledger were blank, then there was a list of cabin passengers, but still no McDowall included. But wait, this page has two lists side by side, and the McDowalls were in the right-hand column with all the second class passengers. Family Search had overlooked that right hand column in its indexing. [This omission has been corrected since I did this search.] The index at Family Search indicates that the whole shipload was transported to Canterbury, which wasn't even a name on the map in 1840. The ledger correctly gave Port Nicholson [Wellington] as their destination.

Each step of this challenging search (from an obituary to the original ledger) yielded a little more information about the family. Careful investigation of primary source images was necessary to achieve success.

Unfortunately the missing forename of Mrs McDowall, who died in 1847, was not discovered, though family sources suggest it was Catherine. William died on 22 Oct 1883 and was buried in Korokoro cemetery, Petone. His sons Robert, Andrew and William were early settlers of Palmerston North. This family used the spellings McDouall and McDowall interchangeably.
